ROMANTIC CASE OF ADOPTION.

Some remarkable litigation is expected to result from a case which has just been brought to light in Liverpool. It is said to arise out of the disputed succession to some heritable property in Ireland, left by a gentleman in that country to a lady and her husband, not long since returned from Australia. The story is singular, if not romantic. Forty years ago a stonemason named M'Intyre left Glasgow to settle in Dublin. There he married a young woman named McGee, of humble birth. A year or two afterwards McIntyre and his wife, accompanied by their daughter, went on to Australia. At that time the only means of access to the colony was by transport ships, conveying convicts from this country, and these vessels, in addition to the convicts, from this country, and these vessels, in addition to the convicts, occasionally carried a few passengers. In one of these ships McIntyre and his wife and daughter embarked. In course of the voyage the surgeon's wife, who had no family, took a great liking to McIntyre's little girl. The ship was wrecked, McIntyre, his wife, and the surgeon's lady being amongst those who perished. The surgeon escaped, and he rescued the child. After an interval of some months, the surgeon and his little charge arrived in Australia, where he ultimately realized a large fortune. He brought the child up as his own, and remained there long enough to see her the wife of a wealthy colonist. Having done this the surgeon returned to Ireland, his native country, and purchased a large estate in the County of Wicklow. He then sent for his adopted child and her husband, who obeyed the summons; and not long after their arrival he died, bequeathing to them the whole of his property. Some of the Scotch relatives of the surgeon now claim the property.—Within the last two or three weeks, three persons have arrived in Liverpool from Australia, who have been brought over specially as witnesses in the case, if they should be required. The will of the doctor is disputed, as in the document the lady is treated as his child.—London Globe.

SNAKE POISON.

In the last volume of "Transactions of the Royal Society of Victoria," published at Melbourne, there was an account of Dr. Halford's interesting researches into the nature of the changes produced in the blood by the poison of snake bites. The doctor worked with the microscope, satisfied himself that there was a change, and described it, and has since had an opportunity of testing his theory and his antidote.

A man working on a railway was bitten by a snake; ere long drowsiness came on; medical assistance was obtained, but, by the time it arrived, the man was comatose, and his lower extremities were paralyzed. Dr. Halford was then summoned by telegraph; he made an incision in a vein, inserted the point of a syringe, injected ammonia diluted with water; and the effect produced is described as "marvelous and immediate."

The man became conscious, steadily recovered and became quite well. Henceforth let all the people who live in districts infested by poisonous snakes, remember that ammonia injected into the vein is the remedy.

This we find in the Eclectic for May, and it is undoubtedly an interesting item worthy of being generally known. In so hopeless a matter as the bite of a deadly snake, everything should be tried which gives any color of hope. But people living in rural districts ought also to understand that injection into a vein is not itself a safe operation in other than professional hands. A single bubble of air inadvertently thrown in may take away life instantly.

Ammonia has long been used as an antidote in bites and stings; its effects are almost magical if applied to the stings of bees and wasps, and it should be always at hand in a family for the purpose. But we have some doubts about its value in cases of rattle snake poison. A recent investigator declares that this venom produces in the system a rapid growth somewhat like the yeast plant, and that neither boiling nor the strongest acids are capable of destroying its energy.—Church Union.

REMEDY FOR TENDER MOUTH IN HORSES.

It is always a desirable point gained to understand the true cause of any effect, wound, disease, or complaint. Some horses will always be exceedingly tender in the mouth, while others are sometimes unmanageable. The corroding of the iron bridle-bit in the mouth of a thin skinned, high-strung animal will produce a canker in the sides of the mouth, just as mechanics often get sore from holding cut nails in their lips while at work. Sometimes the head-stall is buckled up so short that the iron bit is drawn up with much force against the sides of the mouth. If the skin be tender, the animal will be liable to have a sore mouth, and the wound will be so very tender that scarcely the pressure of the weight of the reins can be endured. Sometimes the check-rein is drawn up unmercifully tight. All such things cause sore mouth. The most satisfactory remedy for a sore mouth is a preventative. If the head-stall is too short, lengthen it, so that the bit may ride lower toward the lips. If the sore is produced by the drawing up of the check-rain too tightly, give it greater length. If the nature of the iron is such that the rust from the bit poisons the tender mouth, let the bit be covered with a piece of firm leather, sewed on with the seam on the lower side of the bit, so that the smooth leather may come in contact with the mouth. Let a heavy piece or calf skin be employed to cover the bit rather than flappy leather. If the iron about the mouth be galvanized thoroughly, that will prevent all corrosion of the iron, and consequently injury to the mouth. But, after all, the coating is worn off, let the bit be covered with silver plate; it will cost only a few dimes. A silver wash will be of little value. But a silver-plated bit will last many years, and will afford perfect security against sore mouth when the cause has been attributed to the rust of the iron.—Sometimes the bit is a "twisted bit," with sharp edges, which, being drawn harshly against the mouth will remove the skin.

A FLEA ENTERTAINMENT.

The flea has been caught, captured and made useful at last. We some time since mentioned that a gentleman, calling himself Professor Kitchingman, has been endeavoring to educate the pulex irritans, and that he had succeeded to some extent. He is now showing to such of the world of London as cares to see his exibition what teaching and patient labor can do in producing performing fleas. He has made fleas' furniture, men of war, chariots, railroad engines, treadmills, tight-ropes, sea-saws, and guns, and has brought his insects to such a pitch of perfection that they draw, pull, fire, and do other wonderful things when he wants them to do so. They are tied to the instruments by fine hairs or glass threads, and soon learn how to do their work. Mr. Kitchingman believes the creatures have intellects. Without endorsing this, or unduly triumphing at the fact that the insect which has so long laughed at man, spoilt his temper so often, and baffled so effectually all attempts at suppression, can now be tamed and brought under the master mind, we must congratulate the Professor on having accomplished a most wonderful task. The flea is certainly a bad master; we hope he will prove a good servant.—London Times.

Largest amount of Losses to Widows and Orphans!

The Largest Revenue to the States. And has by far the largest number when compared with 58 Companies reported officially by the Commissioners of New York and Massachusetts it will be seen that the Ætna ranks as one of the first Companies of the Continent. But two of the fifty-eight Companies permitted to do business in New York and Massachusetts had so large an income for the year 1868; but two had so large a number of Policies in force, but one among all those incorporated under the laws of the State of New York had so small a per centage of Expense to Income during the year 1868.

Its expenses are lower than most Companies', and consequently its ability to make and pay liberal dividends to the insured is greater than that of most other Companies. It is one of the great Companies of the land in Income, in Assets, in Number of Policies, in Amount Insured, in Solidity and Strength, in Soundness, Cheapness, Promptness, and Success. Persons contemplating this mode of investment in the future as in the past would do well to examine the claims of all and take a policy accordingly.

SPARKLING CATAWBA SPRINGS,

CATAWBA COUNTY, N. C.

THIS CELEBRATED WATERING PLACE, formerly called the North Carolina White Sulphur Springs, will be open for visitors on Tuesday, the first day of June next.

Being situated in the north western part of the State, in a country remarkable for its beauty and healthfulness—these, together with the virtue of the waters, make it one of the most desirable watering places to be found.

The MINERAL WATERS of these Springs are the White and Blue Sulphur and Chalybeate or Iron, and they possess all the finest qualities of these waters, and are sovereign remedies for all diseases of the liver, bowels, stomach and kidneys, eruptions of the skin, scrofula, weakness, debility dyspepsia, rheumatism, &c.

The proprietor having spent a large amount in additional buildings and improvements generally, these Springs are now in a fine condition, rooms large and pleasant, and good cottages containing from two to six rooms each, well arranged for either large or small families.

Good TEN PIN ALLEYS, BILLIARD TABLES and other amusements.

FINE BATH HOUSES, for Pool, Plunge or Shower Bath, Sulphur Bath, Hot or Cold.

A GOOD BAND OF MUSIC

Will be at the Springs the entire season, and a good Physician, permanently located for the benefit of invalids, who will have every attention.

Having secured the services of Mr. J. N. Carter, of Virginia, who has had much experience and stands high as a Hotel keeper, visitors may rest assured that my table will be supplied with the best the market can afford, and everything done that will add to their pleasure and comfort.

The cars on the Western North Carolina Rail Road will leave Salisbury for Hickory Station, the Springs' depot, every morning, (Sundays excepted,) in connection with the North Carolina Railroad, avoiding stoppage or delay at Salisbury, and arrive at Hickory Station in time for breakfast, where good hacks will be in readiness to take passengers over a beautiful, well-shaded road to the Springs—a distance of six miles.

As an inducement for families and parties to spend two months or more, I have concluded to put board down at the following low rates:

OF GRANVILLE COUNTY,

residing the importance of spreading the growth of Wheat in this County; and the farmers, knowing so well the absolute necessity of supplying themselves at an early period with "Seed Wheat" of the finest quality, ready to plant in the Fall, the undersigned takes this early method of inviting applications from farmers, for what they may require to plant next Fall, of the very "choice Seed Wheat" which he expects to deliver at moderate prices, from the crop growing now at his "Oakland Farm" near Townesville, in this County.

This Wheat was planted last Fall, with Guano, of seed selected in Baltimore with great care by my predecessor, Mr. Chas. H. K. Taylor, who paid $3,25 for it there. It has had the advantage of a heavy top-dressing in spring of Chicago bone fertilizer, and is now very promising.

Like the good Sorghum Seed which I have offered to the farmers of Granville, I hope the orders for my "Seed Wheat" may be equally attractive, to absorb all that I can expect to spare of it.

Address me at Kittrell's Springs, or Mr. Thos. W. Taylor, at Oakland Farm.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

MONDAY, JUNE 21, 1869.

VISIT TO NORFOLK.

In the Sentinel of Friday last our Reporter gave the particulars of the visit of North Carolina to Virginia. It is seldom that guests in such large numbers are received with such honors and hospitalities, both public and private, as the good people of Norfolk thought suitable to tender to their guests. The welcome could not have been made more hearty than it was by Col. Lamb, the President of the Board of Trade; by the Mayor and Col. Hinton, who received and spoke a hearty warm welcome in the name of the Board of Trade and the city of Norfolk. Major John Robinson, President of the S. & R. Railroad and Bay Line of steamers, was not so demonstrative, but certainly not less hearty in his welcome of us. We thought, in his boundless hospitality, when on board the Louisiana, that he had, as Junius once said of a noble Lord, "resolved that no man should leave either sorrowful or sober."

Messrs. Biggs, Lindsay, Moore, and others, did not fail to add, by their efforts, to the elegant entertainment. The Hotels all received not as if they wished to make money, but make welcome the guests of Virginia and the city. We speak, especially, of the Atlantic, which is the best Hotel of the South and not surpassed by any of the North.

The response of Judge Osborne and Major Graham, to the speeches of welcome, were well conceived and gracefully delivered.—The Judge electrified the audience when he talked about cars laden in San Francisco, and discharging their cargoes in Norfolk.—We heard but two criticisms on the Judge's speech. One was general, the other special. The general criticism was that it was, in all parts a good speech. The special was that he should not have admitted that Stonewall Jackson belonged to Virginia, we having his widow and his only daughter, gave us an imperfect title to the husband and father, which was made good by the fact that 50,000 of the State's best sons had fought, bled and died with him. Maj. Graham, in terms that could give no offence to any, alluded to the late war, the trials and sufferings of Virginia, the "mother of States and statesmen." Nor did he forget to pay just tribute to the ladies of Virginia, who had nursed the sick and led the hungry tar hosts who, fighting, fell in battle.

Some of the unreconstructed did not enjoy the visit to Fortress Monroe. We saw one pretty girl cry like a child, because the memory of the lost cause would unbidden come to mind. We heard one of the unreconstructed say the "sight was like flouting red flannel in a mad bull's face." As to ourselves we could bear the sight for we surrendered in 1864 when Gen. Lee wrote his Hunter letter and President Davis rested his hopes of success upon the "return of absentees" as he politely called 76,000 deserters. We even proclaimed in Congress for surrender upon such terms as we could get. Since that day we have been crying for peace, peace, but there is no peace to be found so long as armed detectives of a secret political association are marched from Alamance to Jones at the expense of the people by order of the Grand President of the League "who writes himself Governor."

With Col. Henry Gilliam, Col. Hinton and Judge Osborne, we visited the Atlantic Iron Works. Here we saw one of the victims of Holden's malignity. Henry Bason informed us that he had learned his trade as an apprentice at Company Shops, and that he and four others, the day after the election, had all been dismissed, because of their political sentiments and refused to vote for Holden.

Thus it is that Holden drives the laboring men from the State, and fills their places with such fellows as Laflin, Tourgee, Brewer, Meninger, Ashley, Colgrove, Heaton, Major Tatten, Judge Alden, the swindler, and many other carpet baggers too numerous to mention.

We would not give these five laborers, banished by Holden from the State for all the carpet baggers that Holden and his foul policy have imported, to prey upon the people of the State. Five days labor of the five natives will produce more for the State than twenty-five years of twenty-five carpet baggers, yea, fifty-five years of fifty-five carpet baggers, for they are not producers but only so many vultures, preying upon a fallen State. As soon as the fallen State shows signs of life these laboring natives will return, and the buzzards shocked at so much life in the old State yet, will flap their wings and fly to their Northern roosts, where political garbage can be found suited to such political cormorants.

It was refreshing to look upon the old city of Norfolk in a business and commercial aspect. Prosperous in her industry—doubling in five years her population—reaching out her arms for trade—even to the valley of the Mississippi.

Sad, indeed, was the political aspect of the old Dominion—the home of six Presidents; the home of Mason, Clay, and Randolph, who were greater than Presidents, all given over to military and carpet-bag rule.

It was a day of humiliation to the proud spirit of England, when Edward the III. was called upon to pay homage to Phillip of France. History represents the English King as appearing in the great Cathedral at Aveins, clad in a robe of crimson velvet, embroidered with leopards of gold. He wore a royal crown upon his head, was girt with his sword, and had golden spurs upon his heels. The King of France received him seated in a chair before which a cushion was placed for England's King to kneel upon. Edward refused the act of humiliation. Yet he was finally compelled, kneeling, to pay homage, bareheaded, divested of his regal ornaments, girdle, spurs and sword.

Virginia's ornaments were more splendid than Edward ever wore. Her crown was the declaration of independence, her sword, girdle and spurs, were the sword, girdle and spurs of Washington. Stripped of her spurs, sword and royal ornaments, she is now required, kneeling, to do homage to carpet-baggers. This old Mother of States, shut out from the Union, driven from her own house by her own daughters, Ohio, Illinois and Indiana, will be forced, in her old age to feel and say, with Lear.

"How sharper than a serpent's tooth it is,
To have a thankless child."

THE COURT SHALL ANSWER THE COURT.

The letter of Judge Reade to John D. Hyman, written before the Bench of North Carolina was contaminated by participation in politics, will be read as much to the satifaction of the people as to the condemnation of all the Judges. If the Bar had answered, denying there was any contempt in fact or in law, and that the Court had no jurisdiction, and put in Judge Reade's letter, as a part of their answer, they would have been fully vindicated and heartily sustained by the people of the State. The disgace and dishonor brought upon the Judiciary of North Carolina, by the personal and political conduct of certain Judges, has been keenly felt by the people of the State. The humblest of our people feel that for the preservation of order and the execution of law, the highest reverence and respect should be shown to the Judiciary. This letter of Judge Reade's will tend to cultivate that feeling. It will be for the people to say whether they endorse Judge Reade in 1864, or Judge Reade in 1869. Judge Reade will find that the noble sentiments, so well expressed in his Hyman letter, have not become odious to any but himself, Holden, the party and the Court.

Judge Read's letter was written when he was in open rebellion to his government. Reconstruction seems to have made him a worse man, instead of a better one. The people will remember with lively gratitude the wisdom, temper and moderation of this reconstructed rebel.

The man must be far gone in partizan and political madness, who could write the Hyman letter, and then write the Legislative Address, and follow it up with a political speech to five thousand negroes, in the Capitol Square, and then attempt to punish the Bar, because, in the spirit of his own letter to Hyman, they remonstrate and protest against Judicial interference in political matters.

ROXBORO, July 1, 1864.

My Dear Sir:—I received yours of the 23rd ult., enclosing an editorial of the Progress of that date, in which it is said, that Governor Graham, myself and others, have not declared for Gov. Vance, and that we cannot vote for him without stultifying ourselves, and you ask whether my position is correctly given, and if not, that I will give it, and allow you to publish it. I received a letter some time ago from Col. Little, to the same end, and, after consulting my friends, I declined his request, mainly because I thought that my position in the Judiciary made it improper that I should do so. Since receiving your letter, I have reconsidered the matter. Respect for your opinion, and a disposition to be obliging, inclined me to accede to your request, but the strongest conviction of my judgment is, that it would be a breach of propriety, for which I know no precedent in North Carolina, and for which I would be severely censured. By universal consent, if not by the imperative demand of the public sentiment, the Judges have stood aloof from active participation in party contests. Of course they think and vote with the same independence which others use, but the Press and the Rostrum have not been common to them. I am the youngest Judge upon the bench, and I am sure I ought not to violate a custom which has been so well approved. I think it would be best if it could be forgotten that a Judge ever belonged to either, or to any party, but if that cannot be, then the next best thing is that he should be claimed by all. If there ever was a time when the Judiciary should be free from party prejudices, that time is the present. In war the laws lose much of their strength and influence. The passions run wild. And Judges, to be influential and useful, must be more than ordinarily prudent, in order to avoid the prejudices of any man, or of any party. And, besides, I think you will agree with me, that there never was a time when the Press used so much freedom, not to say licentiousness, in denouncing any and everybody who appears before the public; "Fool," "knave," "abolitionist," "scoundrel," "coward," "liar," "traitor," are the delicacies of its language, until the State, if respected abroad at all, must be so in spite of its press. In the article which you send me from the Progress, it is said that I cannot declare for Gov. Vance without "stultifying" myself. If I were to declare for Mr. Holden I am sure you would have no kinder word than that. So that, whether I declare for one or the other, I could be nothing better than a fool at the least. In February last, your neighbor, the Confederate, placed me side by side with Mr. Holden—indeed, put me at the very head of the list of "agitators;" so that, in whatever Mr. Holden was bad, I was worse. But in its issue of yesterday it says, it is "morally impossible that I can support him." And yet I have said not a word, and am neither better nor worse than I was in February.

So that, declare as I might, if I were to declare at all, I could not hope to escape denunciation, and the consequent prejudices of a large portion of the public, by treason of which my influence on the bench, where I really desire to be useful, would be impaired.

I consider that if a Judge's position in politics were misrepresented, professedly by authority, and injury to himself or to others were likely to ensue, there would be no impropriety in his making correction.—But the article in the Progress is only speculation upon my judicial acts and your paper has freely indulged in the same. My antecedents are before the public. The public are not easily deceived, and upon their good sense I must rely, and shall be happy if I can possess their good opinion in my new position and serve them with profit.

With an earnest desire to oblige you, and any portion of my friends, I have to regret that I cannot, consistently, with my sense of propriety, comply with your request.

With considerations of high regard, I am very truly yours,

E. G. READE,

J. D. HYMAN, Esq.

N. B.—You can make any use of this you think proper—omitting Col. Little's name. E. G. R.

A FLASH IN THE PAN.—The Radical Convention that met at Louisburg, on Saturday, to nominate a candidate for the vacant Senatorship, created by the death of the late Richard Ingo Wynne, failed to make a nomination although a number of candidates were proposed. We tell this "number" of aspirants to Senatorial dignity in Franklin, that none of them stand any chance of a nomination, unless they get it, cut and dried, for their Convention, from Headquarters at Raleigh.

RUFFIN BADGER INSTITUTE.

The Annual Exercises of this Institution took place on the 10th and 11th of June. Quite a number of persons were in attendance, evincing thereby their interest in Education, as well as in the success of this flourishing Institution of learning.

On Wednesday the examination of the various classes took place, and showed that the instruction had been thorough and practical. It is obvious that there was no superficial varnishing; but thorough, solid instruction.

At night, the exercises consisted of declamations and recitation of scenes from standard authors both serious and humorous. It was highly creditable to the pupils and their preceptor.

Thursday was the gala day, and the exercises were highly interesting, and gave promise that in the future we might expect the full grown man. I mean not to flatter the young gentlemen, but certainly their exercises are seldom excelled.

The annual address was delivered by Jno. Manning, Jr., Esq., of Pittsboro'. His subject was, "Mind as applied to the control of the physical world and education with reference thereto." It would do him injustice to attempt to sketch his argument.—Suffice it to say, it was masterly in argument evincing thorough research, profound thought, and close observation of men and things. It was one of those addresses that die not with the minute that gives them birth, but lives on in the memory of those who hear it. It was chaste and elegant in diction, and eloquent in delivery.

This Institution has been in existence but for one session of five months, and numbered forty-seven pupils. The Trustees are very fortunate in having secured the services of that veteran educator Rev. B. York as President. Though blind, he finds himself at home in a school room, and hears recitations through the whole course of English Literature, Mathematics and Languages. Few men excel him as a teacher.

The Institution is located in Chatham county eight miles from Morrisville on the North Carolina Railroad. M.

A YOUNG AFRICAN TRAVELLER.

The German papers have nearly all repeated the story of a youth who promises, as they think to do honor to the German nation as an African traveller and explorer. A boy, seventeen years old, named Krauss, a scholar in a gymnasium in a city of North Germany, happened to read Gerhard Rolf's account of his travels in Bornu, and ever since dreamed, night and day, about the adventures of such a journey in Africa.—News came shortly after, that the celebrated African explorer was in Tripoli, and was preparing for a new journey. Krauss, hearing this, immediately packed up his light bundle of clothes, and then disappeared suddenly, leaving not the slightest trace. But Krauss had got a real travelling spirit, made his way as a journeyman workman through Austria on foot, through European Turkey, and reached Constantinople, where he presented himself to the Russian ambassador as a travelling companion of Rolf's, and his story being believed, received recommendation to various consuls, and was in this manner passed from ship to ship until he reached Tripoli. Rolf was really there as Krauss arrived, and was almost dumbfounded at the boy's stroke of daring; but he could not make the slightest use of his services, and could not think of taking him with him upon his dangerous journey. So he went to the Prussian Consul, and the two were about to pack the would be explorer back again to Germany, when the celebrated Holland lady, Miss Tinne, who was just about entering upon a journey to Soudan, took him into her service to lead a large and favorite dog which she had, as no Moslem could be got to attend to such business. Thus the young hero made a commencement, and, should the dog die in the hot climate, as is very likely, Krauss may then become a camel driver or something else, and at last fit himself for future laurels.

A German writer in Detroit writes in the Abend Post of that city about America in this strain: "Everything is upside down here; wheat is cheap and bread is dear; harvests are good and farmers are dissatisfied, Knowledge is free, and stupidity and bigotry abound. Political freedom exists by the side of party slavery; and, last of all, railroad humbugs and golden spikes.—This last swindle caps the climax. A laurel wood-tie with silver end, golden spikes and a silver hammer. Monstrous humbug. Humbug is the King of America, whose subjects are alike the rich and the poor, the great and the humble. Even Nature is a humbug, for it is now the last of May and the trees are not green, flowers are not in bloom; it is cold, and the larks and nightingales have not been heard from. Humbug! The whole thing is a humbug!"

WHAT MR. SEWARD THINKS OF THE GRANT ADMINISTRATION.—The New York Sun, referring to Mr. Seward, says: "Before starting on his present tour he stated, very explicitly, that within a year there would be a break-up of President Grant's administration, which he pronounced the weakest administration the country has ever had; and he assigned as one of his reasons for going away that he wished to be as far off as possible when the break-up takes place."

Miss Hope Lee advertises herself in the Handsboro' (Miss.) Democrat as a young lady of good birth and education, who wishes to marry an editor. It makes no difference whether the gentleman be handsome or ugly, provided he is intelligent and energetic. She gives no description of her personal appearance, but will exchange photographs if desired. She is capable of taking charge of the paper in the absence of the editor. She can be addressed through the editor of the Democrat, but no Radical need apply.

LARGE FISH NURSERY.—A firm in Meredith Village, N. H., have a large fish nursery, comprising three ponds made by damming up a brook. Six thousand yearling salmon were placed in the Pembrewaset last week.

The negroes in Louisiana are fast relapsing into barbarism. In Assumption Parish last week a negro man named Ike Murphy disinterred the body of a colored infant recently buried, and severed its head from the neck. When questioned as to what induced him to commit such a diabolical act, he replied that he wanted its head for some purpose, but found it too soft for his use.

A NEW DISCOVERY.—A German chemist has discovered that if morphia, which is sometimes used effectually to allay vomiting, be heated with hydro-chloric acid, it will become the most powerful emetic known. The effect is produced by introducing a small quantity under the skin and sometimes by spilling it on the skin, but the vomiting soon subsides and leaves no nausea. The discoverer calls the new agent ememorphia.

AN ENORMOUS HOG.—In Los Angelos, California, there is a hog of the Irish grazier breed, now three and a half years old which measures nine feet from the tip of the nose to the tip of the tail, forty inches in height, and is as thick through as an ox.—The breed grows till five years of age, and there is no saying what the weight of this will be should it live to the age named. A year and a half ago it weighed 750 pounds. Now it is estimated to weigh about 1,250 pounds.

SEVERAL of the Chicago newspapers are heaping indignities upon the Chicago Tribune for its sensational and wholly unfounded report of the suicide of one Nelly Dorset, a New York young lady by drowning in the turbid waters of the lake. On the strength of the Tribune story, the authorities went to the trouble and expense of dragging the shore for several days. The letters of the alleged suicide were written up by the Tribune reporter.

Judge Paschall, Attorney for Texas, has demanded of George Peabody & Co., London, through their New York house, Dabney, Morgan & Co., $160,000 realized by them on Texas indemnity bonds, covered by the decision in the case of Texas vs. White and Cuttes. Texas will probably recover the money without litigation.

Three Cubans in New Orleans recently published a card, challenging the anonymous author of some statement in the La Cronica. A Senor Martinez, a Spaniard, in reply, states that he is not the author of the statement, but accepts the responsibility of it, and will give two of the Cubans any satisfaction they may require, if they will call any day during certain hours at a certain coffee house in that city. The social position of the third Cuban, he says, makes his challenge unacceptable.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT AT WEST POINT, N. Y.—Thursday evening, as Mr. Gunther, a brother of ex-Mayor Gunther, and Mr. Henry Clark were proceeding to the steamboat landing in a carriage, the horses took fright and dashed off at a fearful rate of speed down the steep road leading to the river.—On reaching the steamboat dock the vehicle was overturned. Mr. Clark managed to jump out, but Mr. Gunther was thrown violently to the ground. The animals continued their mad course and went into the river with the carriage and driver. The latter was rescued, but the horses and carriage, valued at $3,000, disappeared. Mr. Clark was very severely bruised about the head. Mr. Gunther's right arm is badly injured at the point of the shoulder, and he suffers from the shock.

NEW FLOUR.—Yesterday Mr. M. L. Wallis brought to town the first new flour that has been offered in this market. It was made out of early May wheat, and the quality was marked "Inspected Family." It was ground at his mill near Pineville, and bought by Stenhouse, Macauley & Co., at $6,25 per hundred.—Charlotte Times 19th.

THE NEW MARKET HOUSE.

If our very respectable and loyal Board of Commissioners are acting in good faith towards the tax payers of this corporation, why are they so backward in publishing the facts connected with the bidding for contracts for the construction of the proposed market? Why do they refuse to give to the public the reasons that induced them to reject the lower bids of respectable and responsible architects and accept the higher one of a man of no more experience in such business? If the Board persist in refusing to furnish this information which the people have an undeniable right to demand, what other conclusion can be arrived at, save that the community has been swindled out of $6,900. When we charge these rascalities upon Radicals, especially officials, they pretend to grow very indignant and are loud mouthed in demanding that we procure the necessary papers to prove such charges, knowing very well the impossibility of our so doing, as they fill all the offices, manipulate to suit themselves, all the books, records &c., &c., and play into each other's hands generally. The same machine-like system of fraud, villainy and corruption which the Radical party has instituted in the General Government, has been put into operation in every State county and town, where they have the ascendency; and Raleigh, most assuredly, forms no exception to this rule.

Again we ask, why do not the Commissioners publish the particulars of this transaction? Why is it that all of the bids, names of the bidders and other things connected with this matter, have not been made public? Surely those out of whose pocke s the bill has to be paid have a right to know. Are the Commissioners afraid to subject their proceedings in this business to public criticism?

The people of this community demand this information and they have an indisputable right to it, and any refusal on the part of Commissioners to afford it, is a proof positive that they are not acting in good faith.

We intend to use every exertion to sift thoroughly this and some other equally dirty looking matters and in discussing them, "will call a spade a spade" regardless of whom it offends.

THE INFANT class, connected with the Raleigh Baptist Sabbath School, will give an exhibition and concert, at Tucker Hall, on Thursday evening the 24th inst. This class is composed of the smallest children in the Sabbath School, from three to eight years of age, has over one hundred and twenty five names on the class roll, with an average attendance of eighty-five.

The exhibition will consist of singing, speeches, recitation from the Bible, and infant class exercises generally.

Price of admission, twenty-five cents.

Proceeds to be applied towards the purchase of a cabinet organ for the use of the class.

AN EXCELLENT BOOK.—We are indebted to the United States Publishing Company for volumes one and two, of "Chamber's Information for the People," of over 1,500 pages each volume.

This is one of the most valuable publications of the age, containing as it does, valuable papers on all subjects connected with art, science, literature, domestic economy, history, biography, &c., &c., which will be read with interest and profit by every one.

It will not be for sale in the Bookstores, but is sold only by subscription; and the publishers are desirous of procuring the services of suitable persons to act as Agents in every county of every State in the Union.

THE LAWYERS DONE FOR.—A city cotemporary, of critical profundity, literary accuracy, witty vivacity, egregious pomposity, and doubtful veracity, says of the Court in the protesting lawyers' case, "the arguments of the lawyers are completely riddled and their conduct is submitted to a calm but scattering review." After that the poor devils of "thim liars," as our facetious Sheriff is represented as calling them, may as well cave in, cry out peccavi, and quit the hunt.

By the way, is the term "thim Liars," intended to apply to the individuals of the class who have already been made into Judges, or those who are waiting for the judicial old shoes of the present incumbents.

HORSE THIEF KILLED.—We are informed that Eli Dampier, who was confined in the jail in this place on a charge of horse stealing, some twelve months ago, and escaped conviction, we believe, by becoming State's witness against his accomplices, was killed near Salem Church, near the Wake and Chatham line, while making his escape with a stolen horse from Harnett County, on Thursday or Friday last. The facts, as we gather them from our informant, are, that Dampier stole a horse from the stable of Col. Murchison, of Harnett, who pretty soon got on the track and pursued him to the neighborhood above named, where he overtook him in a swamp. He refused to stop when called to, whereupon the Colonel fired on him, the ball taking effect in the head, killing him instantly. He was on the stolen horse when shot.

NEWS FROM THE FRONT.—Captain Bosher, of the N. C. D. M., arrived in the city, direct from camp Colgrove, on Saturday afternoon. We are happy to state that the D. M. are flourishing "like a green bay tree." No enemy has yet made a descent upon the camp, and no arrest of rebels has yet been made, owing to the fact that the melish have been strictly confined to camp since their first arrival. A camp of about seventy-five negroes has been established about a mile and a half from camp Colgrove, acting also as D. M., but whether a line of posts has been organized between the two camps, we are not prepared, with the information in our possession, to report.

Some of the boys from Raleigh have been a successful in piscatorial exercise, having taken up considerable strings of speckled perch, eels and red fins.

We have not yet learned on what day the Captain proposes to return to his command; but it does not matter, the boys will draw their two-dollars a-day, all the same, and somebody will have to pay it.

BASE BALL.—We had concluded that the base ball mania had, to use a modern classic expression, entirely "played out," but we see, from accounts in New York papers, and others, that we were mistaken. It is yet in vogue and occupying a prominent place among the current sensations daily chronicled by our Northern exchanges. Last week a picked "nine" from the "Red Stocking," Club of Cincinnati, made a visit to New York, where they took three champion balls from as many different Clubs of that city, and at last accounts were awaiting challenges from any other club having sufficient temerity to enter the ring against them.

Can't we get up a new club in Raleigh? We dare say the old Crescent or Tar heel would sell them, if organized, an outfit of balls and bats upon very moderate terms.

WATTS THE MATTER, NOW?—Judge Watts informs the Standard that burglars entered his house at Frankfinton, on Friday night last, and robbed it of all, or nearly all, the family wearing apparel, a gun, a watch, the Judge's hat, and many other articles. As the Standard wittily observes, "this is a serious joke upon the Judge," and if the practical joker should be caught, we have no doubt it will cause a loss of one or more votes to the Radical candidate for Senator in the election to come off soon.

LARGE FOR ITS AGE.—Our friend and fellow citizen, A. S. Thompson, Esq., has shown us, this morning, a cucumber seven days old, measuring twelve inches in length and between four and five in diameter, raised in his garden in this City. If we had any cucumbers growing we'd try to beat it, but we haven't, so we give it up Can any body else a bout here beat it?

On Sunday, the 13th inst., by a stroke of lightning, five mules, belonging to Mr. Thomas W. Thompson, were instantly killed while grazing or taking shelter from the rain under a small tree in his plantation near Hill's Ferry, in Bertie County.

IMPERIAL JUDGES.—The Chief Justice (injustice) of North Carolina decides that the lawyers who out of Court expressed their opinion of himself and his worshipful associates—in a protest against their active participation in partizan politics—must either apologise to the bench thus insulted by the truth, or else be refused their right to practice longer at the bar of this Court. Nice business. A despotic judiciary! Isn't that Republican.—Pet. Index.

In May, 1866, a man left a package of Government bonds to the value of $21,000 with the Adams Express Company in Indianapolis, to be sent to himself at Waldron, a small town on the Cincinnati railroad. He was not at the place to receive the bonds, and the agent, having made an ineffectual attempt to deliver them, deposited them in the b st safe in town. The company did a small business there, and had no safe. The private safe in which the bonds had been placed was broken open and robbed. The owner of the bonds sued the company to recover, but the Supreme Court of the State held that, as the consignee knew the circumstances of the company in the town, and was not on hand to receive the bonds when he knew they would arrive, the company was no longer responsible as a common carrier.

THE JEALOUSY OF GIRLS.—Girls are awfully jealous of each other. I should call this the girl's distinctive fault. See them when they are introduced, or when they first meet at a ball or corquet party; see how coldly critical they look at each other, how insolently their eyes rove over every portion of their rival's dress; read in their faces the outspoken scorn as the result of their scrutiny. "You think you have done it very well, but you have made a fright of yourself, and I am much better than you!" Watch their disdain of the more admired among them; and how excessively naughty for attracting so much attention they think that Ada or Amy is, about whom the young men cluster. How bold she is!—how affected she is!—and oh! how ugly she is! Sometimes, if they are deep, they will overpraise her enthusiastically; but the rule is generally too transparent to deceive any one, and simply counts what it is—a clever feint that doesn't answer. It is quite a study to watch the way in which girls shake hands together, or take hands in the dance. The limp cool impertinent way in which they touch palms, then let their arms fall as paralized, tells a volume to those able to read the lettering. Shame upon such conduct.

GOOD JOKE ON SNYDER.—Some over zealous patriot who never saw a Confederate flag, for the reason, that he belonged to that noble army of martyrs that stayed at home and sent all his own and wife's relations to the war, imagined that a Bremen flag stretched across the street on Wednesday, from Bottimero, Marrow & Co.'s, on Main street, during the reception of the excursionists from North Carolina, was a Confederate flag, and off he went to report the case to the military authorities. He only had his trouble for his pains, and was walked off on his ear, when the nationality of the suspicious bunting was explained to him. What a cid that flag must be to some trundle bed rangers; particularly those who never did a day's duty, or lost a night's rest for anything but themselves. Poor devils.—Norfolk Journal.

A GRACELESS PROPOSITION.—The present administration has done many unpopular things, and the people who voted the Republican ticket last fall are beginning to be fully aware of their error. The apportioning of many of the principal diplomatic and Consular, as well as territorial officers, almost entirely among the personal friends of the President, as a general thing men of no special ability or character, was a grave error certainly, and the friends of the administration are beginning to see it. To the mass of the people, who believe in the recognition of this merit, this was bad enough; but the freaks and whims in favor of his satellites, which the President is now desirous should receive consideration, and which he believes should be fully gratified, are becoming still more unbearable. In order that a man whose position is now worth twelve thousand dollars, may roll in wealth and receive a free gift from the people of five thousand dollars more, it is proposed to elevate the Chinese mission to a rank now held by England and France alone, and to increase the salary of Mr. Howard, the newly appointed Minister, from twelve to seventeen thousand dollars a year. There is no excuse or palliation whatever, for this barefaced proposition.

China does not hold the position among civilized nations that England or France does, neither are the duties of a Minister to that country as onerous or by any manner of means as important as those of an Ambassador to one of the latter countries.—The position of Minister to China, for many years past, has been a perfect sinecure, the duties of the office having been performed constantly and entirely by one man, who enjoys, we believe, the salary of five thousand dollars, and who has been always the real Minister. This man is truly invaluable to the government, for he does all the work. So unimportant was the presence of the actual Minister to China considered a few year's since, that our late Ambassador remained for two years after his arrival in that country, at one of the seaport cities, hundreds of miles from Pekin, the seat of government.

The idea of transferring five thousand dollars more annually from the pockets of the people to those of an official now too well paid, could only have originated with the present administration, which is most generous with the public funds. Let the people consider this last proposition, for it is probably but a test case, and should they acquiesce in this matter let them be prepared for many more changes of a similar character.—Albany Argus.

READ WHAT THE HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITIES SAY OF THE BROOKLYN LIFE!

"A Company that makes such endorsements on its policies, gives the strongest pledge that it will fulfil its trust faithfully, and keep its reserves sufficient."—HON. ELIZUR WRIGHT.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has placed itself in the vanguard of insurance reform, and is the first Company that has done full and complete justice to the insured."—INSURANCE TIMES, Jan. 1869.

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, ALONE OF ALL OTHER LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES, GUARANTEES A DEFINITE SURRENDER-VALUE IN CASH, AND EVERY POLICY ISSUED BY THAT COMPANY, BEARS A CERTIFICATE STATING WHAT THIS EXACT WORTH WILL BE IN DOLLARS AND CENTS, AT ANY TIME, AFTER THE PAYMENT OF TWO OR MORE PREMIUMS.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has made no half-way work of the adoption of this inestimable feature. It is noteworthy, in this connection, as a merited tribute to the excellent Company (Brooklyn Life,) which has so gallantly raised the standard of reform in Life Insurance, that we find in the whole list of existing Companies, few competitors which deserve so much credit in respect of economy of management, or care, skill and judgment in the selection of risks."—INS. SPEC. Jan. 1869.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid, and now pays to its policy-holders, LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a life Insurance Company.

Dividends are paid IN CASH, or applied to the purchase of the policy, or left with the Company to accumulate at interest, in either way, at the option of the policy-holder.

SUNDOWN.

I stood by the margin of the Summer sea,
As the day was quietly dying,
When the waves were lulled in a dreamless sleep,
And the seamews plaintively crying.

The broad red disc of the setting sun
Was poised on the mighty ocean,
And the wavelets were creeping one by one
On the shore, with a dreamy motion.

But a gorgeous curtain of blue and gold
Now fell on the slipping billow,
And the sun his weary march ended old,
Received on a glowing pillow

But ere in a shroud, as he sank to rest
Of his crown of surpassing glory,
For the hues that trembled on ocean's breast
Mocked the wonders of Eastern story.

Slowly these beauties all passed away.
As I saw Night's shadows descending,
And I deemed it well such a perfect day
Should have such a perfect ending.

LIFE INSURANCE.

NATIONAL

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF THE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Chartered by Special Act of Congress, Approved July 25th, 1868.

CASH CAPITAL,

PAID IN FULL.

It is no longer a question with any man, who tenderly loves his wife and children, who considers how helpless would be their condition in case of his death, as to the duty of taking out a LIFE POLICY, but as to which Company he shall pay his money.

If he reflects a moment he will conclude to patronize the Company which shows the greatest degree of vitality, which extends its business over the largest area, which is a Home Company in every locality; which furnishes insurance at the least cost; which issues no policies that are forfeitable should he be unable next year, or any subsequent year to pay his renewal; and which is undoubtedly able to meet ALL ITS PROMISES.

With these feelings and views, he looks over the newspapers, and, by the time he gets through reading the advertisements of Mutual or Mixed Companies, he finds his mind so muddled that he is at a loss where to go or what to do. He can not comprehend one-half that is written, and concludes that none but ACTUARIES, who are familiar with the principles upon which Life Insurance is based can comprehend or explain anything about dividends and his liability for notes given in part payment of premiums. In his dilemma, he looks into the plan adopted by the

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

U. S. A.,

and finds just what he wants:

An ALL CASH PLAN, reduced to the LOWEST MINIMUM Rate, like any commodity in Market, so much Insurance for so much Money. No notes to give; no interest to pay; no anxiety about Assessments; no apprehension of his Policy being forfeited next year if he does not pay his annual Renewal; and the RATES so much LOWER than other Companies, that he realizes a larger Dividend, IN ADVANCE, than other Companies can pay him in the future.

He finds that, instead of this UNCERTAIN PROMISE, and present high rate, that the presents a certain and definite sum for a much lower rate, and puts up its paid up Capital of

$1,000,000

as a guarantee fund, that its contracts will be fulfilled, and, like thousands of others, cheerfully calls on their Agent to make his application for a Policy. Hence the unprecedented and most wonderful success of the NATIONAL as contrasted with the older and Mutual Companies.

The Company issued its first policy on the 1st of August, 1868, and up to March 1st, 1869, it had issued 3,582 policies.

Amount insured,	$10,005,550.00
Total Premiums,	350,117.09

The whole number issued by the Connecticut Mutual in the first year of its existence was 892

By the Mutual Benefit of New Jersey,	693
" New England Mutual,	343
" Phœnix Mutual,	355
" Massachusetts Mutual,	312
" Equitable of New York,	277

The Mutual Life, of New York, in the first year of its existence, only issued 470 policies.

In its 10th year,	1,260 "
And in its 20th year,	1,842 "

this latter being 600 less than was issued by the NATIONAL in its first seven months.

CAPITAL OF THE STATE,

Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

THE LATEST NEWS

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph, will be carefully collated and presented.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.

And, in one word, no effort will be spared to make the SENTINEL, in all respects, a reliable

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC

CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, reliable and universally recommended. It can be used on any Stove or Range, in any boiler, and the low price of the article places it within the reach of every family.

This Boiler operates upon purely philosophical principles, is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.

The hot suds and steam, by the action of heat, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing all articles, from the finest laces to the bed-clothes. For Flannels it is invaluable, as it does not full them as in the old process of rubbing and pressing.

The time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes is twenty to thirty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the boiler, thoroughly loosening and eradicating the dirt WITHOUT LABOR or friction.—A thorough rinsing finishes the process.

Washing day will no longer be a terror and dread to housewives, for once in the Boiler will soon be returned in the SAVING OF TIME AND LABOR, and the great saving in the wear of clothes.

The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany its introduction with numerous letters of approval, &c.

No invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at LOUGEE & BROTHER'S, and see the wonderful operation.—We have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the state.
